

Aleksandar Jovanovic

Tel: 416 775 8823

Email: ajovanovic@torkinmanes.com

Aleksandar is a commercial lawyer at Torkin Manes LLP. He has a broad range of experience litigating commercial and business related disputes. Aleksandar has represented clients on a variety of matters including the defence of oppression actions and the enforcement of various debt instruments and contractual provisions at private arbitrations and in Court.

Aleksandar co-authored the Canadian chapter in an international publication, "Finding, Freezing and Attaching Assets: A Multi-Jurisdictional Handbook". In his spare time, Aleksandar is an annual participant in the Sporting Life 10K, the Run for the Cure, and volunteers with Ve'ahavta to help feed the homeless.

During law school, he volunteered and worked as a caseworker and group leader at Queen's Legal Aid where he assisted marginalized individuals with various legal issues. Aleksandar was awarded the McDougall-Watson Memorial Award in recognition for his efforts as a Queen's Legal Aid caseworker.

Expertise

- ▶ Construction Law
- ▶ Litigation

Publications & Presentations

- ▶ Mar 21, 2016 | Book
Finding, Freezing and Attaching Assets: A Multi-Jurisdictional Handbook
Co-wrote chapter, Wolters Kluwer, 2016

Memberships

- ▶ Ontario Bar Association

Credentials

- ▶ Called to the Ontario Bar, 2014

Education

- ▶ J.D., Queen's University, 2013
- ▶ B.A. (High Honours), Criminology with a Concentration in Law, Carleton University, 2009