 Legal services provided through Isana Nagla Professional Corporation*

Isana is a partner at Torkin Manes LLP. She is a member of the Insurance Defence Group and her practice focuses exclusively on insurance defence litigation.

Isana has extensive experience in a wide range of insurance related matters including, occupiers' liability, products liability, commercial host liability, personal injury and general liability, motor vehicle accident tort claims, property damage and professional negligence (insurance brokers, adjusters, mortgage brokers). She also defends and provides opinions with respect to environmental, fraud and arson claims. Isana is also often retained to advance subrogated claims and to provide coverage opinions.

Isana is cognizant of her clients' business approach and tolerance for risk. She strives to achieve pragmatic resolutions which are in the best interest of the client while attempting to avoid protracted and costly legal proceedings with uncertain outcomes. Isana is highly regarded as a legal counsel by her clients and peers with excellent negotiation and communication skills. She is committed to achieving resolutions of claims in a timely manner with a view to avoiding the cost of mediation or other unnecessary legal proceedings when possible. In circumstances in which this is not possible or where principles or business decisions dictate otherwise, Isana provides clients with aggressive legal representation. Isana has appeared on behalf of clients at all levels of Ontario Courts. She has also represented clients at both jury and non-jury trials, pre-trial conferences and mediations.

Isana is actively involved in organizing educational seminars and presentations on varied topics of interest for the purpose of continuing education and keeping her clients properly informed.
