

Sarah Boyle

Tel: 416 777 5199

Email: sboyle@torkinmanes.com

Sarah is an associate in the Family Law Group. She provides counsel on all areas of family law.

Prior to practising family law, Sarah summered, articulated and was an associate at a full service Bay Street firm. Throughout her legal training, Sarah was a volunteer with the Family Law Project in Toronto. Sarah is an editor-in-chief of Advising the Family-Owned Business, a resource for legal practitioners.

As an associate, Sarah has appeared before the Superior Court of Justice and Ontario Court of Justice. She has assisted with the preparation of cases argued in the Ontario Court of Appeal. Sarah also has experience assisting clients through alternative dispute resolution methods.

Sarah is a former national level high jumper who competed for the Canadian National Track and Field team. She acts as counsel for sport dispute resolution matters against the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport and World Anti-Doping Agency.

Expertise

- ▶ Family Law

Awards & Recognition

- ▶ 2012 R.J. Gray Award, Osgoode Hall, for outstanding athletic achievement

Publications & Presentations

- ▶ Oct 02, 2018 | Article

Sport for Development and Peace: A Public Sociology Perspective
Third World Quarterly, Volume 32, Issue 3, 2011, p. 589 - 601.

Memberships

- ▶ The Advocates Society
- ▶ Canadian Bar Association

Community Involvement

- ▶ Athletics Ontario, Board of Directors

Credentials

- ▶ Called to the Ontario Bar, 2016

Education

- ▶ J.D., Osgoode Hall Law School, 2015
- ▶ M.Sc, Exercise Science, University of Toronto, 2017
- ▶ B.A., Physical Education and Health with Honours, University of Toronto, 2011