Emerging From the Crisis: Understanding the Impact on Health Law

By Neil M. Abramson

Neil Abramson, of our Health Law Group, spoke at the OBA Health Law Section program on June 10th titled "Emerging From the Crisis: Understanding the Impact on Health Law".

The practise and delivery of health care has shifted dramatically in the last few months. Health care resources have been reallocated, complaints, claims and regulatory issues have shifted and the delivery and model of health care services has significantly changed. Join our panel of experts as they discuss the future of health care and considerations for the health law bar and its clients as recovery begins.
